

Quality Policy

Eastern Oil's commitment to quality is a reflection of the supreme importance that we place in total customer satisfaction. The Company's ability to provide superior products and services is the direct result of our belief that, in order to best serve the customer, we must strive daily to maximize quality throughout the Company.

In doing so, Eastern Oil will ensure continuous growth and success while exceeding customer expectations for many years to come.

